Life-wide Learning Program – Work Trial Scheme for Secondary School Students

Dear Parents,

The Education Bureau is promoting a “Life-wide Learning Program” and selected some outstanding students of the school for the Work Trial Scheme. The scheme aims to offer learning opportunities for students to experience the actual working environment, and to think of setting proper study paths, career development goals, and plans as their whole person development. After the scheme, the school will arrange for the students to share their experience of the scheme with their schoolmates.

The details of the activity are as follows:
